

Serenity 100 Alternating Pressure Cushion - High Risk

The Serenity 100 cushion is a specialised solution for wheelchair users at high risk (grades 2-3) of developing pressure ulcers. It features A/B alternating cycle technology and static low-pressure reduction, enhancing sacral blood circulation and preventing long-term tissue deformation. It's 5 comfort settings and 3 adjustable cycle times, exemplify our commitment to elevating the quality of life for residents.

STANDARD FEATURES

Advanced Cell Design: Unique 6 cell design made of durable TPU, providing adaptive support

Safety and Mobility: Equipped with a transport function for sustained comfort during moves.

Ease of Use: Analogue Pump with adjustable pressure settings for customised care.

RISK CATEGORY

6 CELL DESIGN

ANALOGUE PUMP

ALTERNATION CYCLE

STATIC MODE

MAX USER WEIGHT: 120KG

KEY FEATURES

Innovative Comfort: Low-memory foam Insert for superior cushioning and reliable support.

Customisable Care: Adjustable pressure knob on the pump for tailored comfort settings.

Optimised Cycle Time: 12-minute cycle time for dynamic pressure alleviation and healthy blood flow.

Transport Function: Ensures stable support during transfers without constant pump connection.

Reliable Warranty: 1-year warranty, offering quality assurance and peace of mind.

SPECIFICATION

PUMP

Air Output: 8 litres/min

Pressure Range: 30-60mmHg

Additional Features: Adjustable Pressure Knob, Alternate/Static Modes, 12-Minute Cycle Time

CUSHION:

Dimensions: 500mm x 450mm x 100mm

Material: Multi-Stretch, Vapour-Permeable, Antimicrobial Cover

Max User Weight: 120 kg

Serenity 100 Alternating Pressure Cushion - High Risk

Key Features

